

Santa Fe Art Institute

Contact:

Sarah Spengler

sspengler@sfai.org

(505) 424 5050

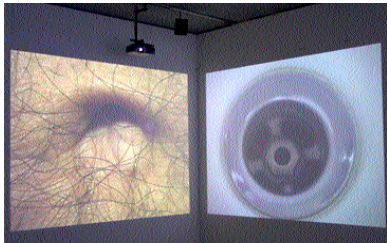

SANTA FE ART INSTITUTE presents the exhibition
STORIES: History, Myth and Narrative

Exhibit dates: July 8 - August 11

Exhibit Hours: Monday through Friday, 9 - 5pm

Opening reception: July 8, 1 - 5 pm, July 9, 11:30 - 5 pm

Members brunch preview: July 8, 11:30 - 1 pm

Storytelling is a central part of every society and the power, importance and energy of oral, written, visual and enacted story lies at the heart of culture. Join us for an exhibition with the following artists:

Debbie Fleming Caffery, Gary Hill, Alfredo Jaar, Juan Manuel Echavarria, Anu Mathur and Dilip da Cunha, Adrian Piper, William Pope.L, Anri Sala, and Gerry Snyder

There will be a Biennial Weekend bus loop on July 8 and 9 that will run from SFAI, to SITE, to the Georgia O'Keeffe museum, to the IAIA Museum, to the Folk Art Market, to CCA and return to SFAI. This Biennial weekend Bus will be FREE for members of any participating organization and $2.50 for the general public. The bus will run every 30 minutes. There is ample, free parking at SFAI.